

Article 7: Official language

- 1) The Nepali language in the Devnagari script shall be the official language of Nepal.
- 2) A State may, by State law, determine one or more languages of the nation spoken by a majority of people within the State as its official language(s), in addition to the Nepali language.
- 3) Other matters relating to language shall be as provided by the Government of Nepal, on recommendation of the Language Commission.